

Our Terms of Business - Important Customer Information

Introduction

Please read this document carefully. It sets out the terms on which we agree to act for you, our client, and contains details of our regulatory and legal responsibilities. If you are unsure about any aspect of these terms, or if you have any questions about our relationship with you, please contact us immediately. By doing business with us you agree to do so based on the terms of this document unless we both agree otherwise. This document replaces any previous version you may have had.

Definitions:

"Our", "Ourselves", "Us", "We" – means Fish Administration Ltd
"You", "Your" – means our customer, or prospective customer.

1. Regulation

We are authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) which is the independent watchdog that regulates financial services in the UK.

Our permitted activities as an insurance intermediary include arranging general insurance contracts. Our FCA Firm Reference number is 310172. These details and our authorised trading names can be checked on the Financial Services Register by visiting the Financial Services Register at website <https://register.fca.org.uk> or by contacting the FCA on 0800 111 6768. Our company is registered in England & Wales. Under Company Registration Number 42141119. Our Registered Office is Rossington's Business Park, West Carr Road, Retford, Nottinghamshire, DN22 7SW.

We confirm that this document and the terms stated in it shall continue to apply if we change our company name. We will notify you if that happens, and also tell you if our Company Registration Number or FCA Firm Reference Number changes.

2. Our service to you

We source and arrange products but do not offer advice or make recommendations when arranging your insurance. However, We may ask some questions to narrow down the product offered on which We will provide details, however this does not mean that we are making a recommendation and you will then need to make your own choice about how to proceed.

Our service includes:

- arranging insurance cover to meet your requirements; and
- helping you with any ongoing changes you have to make.

We will tell you if we cannot place some, or all, of your insurance needs.

We may be able to offer you the option of making your payment(s) by instalments. Please note that we do not give advice on whether you should pay by instalments, and we do not give a personal recommendation regarding the instalment provider, but we may ask some questions to narrow down the payment options available. You will then need to make your own choice about how to proceed.

3. The capacity in which we are acting

We act on behalf of the Insurer(s) and under an agreement with them which allows Us to provide a quotation, confirm cover and issue policy documents to you. We also deal with the majority of all claims on behalf of the Insurer under a delegated claims handling authority. If this is not the case for your claim, We will inform you.

4. How we make our selection

We are contractually obliged to offer you an insurance product from the Insurer named in the accompanying documents and have not carried out a 'fair and personal analysis' of the market, which would be a wider search. All quotes offered will be valid for 30 days from the day you obtain the quotation.

5. Disclosure of information

Your insurance is based upon the information provided to the insurance company.

Consumers:

If you are a 'consumer' (which means you are an individual buying insurance wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to their trade, business or profession) you must take reasonable care to answer all questions fully and accurately. Once cover has been arranged, you must tell us immediately of any changes to the information you gave to us. This is so that we can tell your insurers about the changes. If you do not give accurate and up-to-date information to us for your insurers, they may invalidate your insurance cover. Insurers may also refuse to pay any claim you make or may reduce the claim payment to you.

Commercial customers:

If you are not a consumer, then you are a 'commercial customer'. As a commercial customer you must present the risk (including information about you, other directors, senior managers, the firm, details of what you want to insure, previous claims and any other information) fairly.

You must do this before a new policy is set up, or before an existing policy is renewed. This means that before you tell us to go ahead and arrange your policy(ies), you must disclose to insurers anything that might influence an insurer in:

- fixing the premium.
- setting the terms; or
- determining whether they would take the risk.

If you are uncertain whether anything should be disclosed, you should disclose it.

To identify what must be disclosed, you must carry out a 'reasonable search' before giving us the information to present the risk to insurers. This includes (but is not limited to) consulting with all senior managers in your business.

A senior manager is anyone who plays a significant role in the making of decisions about how your activities are to be managed or organised. A senior manager can be a member of your board of directors, or formally in a senior management role, but they do not have to be either of these.

You must also consult with anyone who has particular knowledge about the risk(s) to be insured.

If you deliberately or recklessly (i.e. without care) do not comply with your obligations to present the risk fairly, insurers may 'avoid' the policy. This means they can treat the policy as if it never existed. They can keep the premium and refuse to pay any claims. You might also have to repay any claims payments already made. If you do not present the risk fairly, but this was neither deliberate nor reckless, the Insurers' response will depend upon what would have happened if you had complied with your obligations. There are three possibilities, depending on how severe your failure was:

- a. if insurers would not have provided the policy at all, then they may avoid your policy and treat it as if it never existed. They may refuse to make any claims payments and demand the return of any claims payments already made. However, insurers would have to return any premium payments you had already made.
- b. if insurers would have provided the policy but on a different basis e.g. with a higher excess or lower limit of cover, your policy will remain in force but will be treated as if those different terms applied from the start of the policy. This could result in a claim not being paid at all, or only partially paid.

c. if insurers would have provided the policy but charged a higher premium, insurers may reduce any claim payment in proportion to the difference in premium. That is, in proportion to the difference between the premium they charged and the premium they would have charged if you had fairly presented the risk. This could result in a significant reduction to the amount of any claim payment under the policy.

All statements and facts you put on any forms or documents should be full, true and accurate. They must be given after you have made a reasonable search, including consulting with your senior management. Where someone completes forms or documents on your behalf, you must check them for accuracy and completeness before you sign them. You must always read the declaration on any forms, statements or other documents and make sure you understand it before you sign.

6. Cancellation

If you are a customer acting outside your trade, business or profession (i.e a 'consumer') then you usually have the legal right to cancel a policy within 14 days of receiving the full policy terms and conditions. This timescale may vary depending on the type of policy purchased, but the terms will be explained in your policy document.

Where 14-day cancellation rights apply:

The right of a consumer to cancel does not apply:

- if an incident has occurred within those 14 days, where a claim is or could be made, including by someone else;
- if the policy has completed its purpose (e.g. a total loss claim paid for a car);
- to policies of less than one month in duration, such as a short-term travel insurance (we will tell you in writing if you have cancellation rights for any short-term policy we arrange for you).

You must contact us within the 14-day period where the Right to Cancel applies. The insurer and ourselves may make a proportionate charge for the amount of time we have been on cover and our fees will not be returnable.

Where 14-day cancellation rights do not apply:

This section applies to:

- consumers who cancel after their 14-day 'Right to Cancel' period; and
- commercial customers, where a 'Right to Cancel' period does not usually apply (please refer to your policy document to check this).

And in these situations, please note the following:

- Premium refunds: insurers may only return a proportionate amount of the premium. You may be charged an administration fee to cancel. Our commission and/or fees will not be returnable. Please refer to your policy documents for more details or contact us if you are unsure.

For all policies, if you do not pay your premium by the due date, your cover may be cancelled. This could take place immediately, or your insurers could give you notice of cancellation.

If you pay by instalments, there is the possibility that the amount paid prior to the cancellation date may not cover the overall amount due up to the date of cancellation. In that situation you will remain liable to pay the difference between those amounts.

If you wish to cancel your policy(ies) please contact us.

For motor and/or home cover If you cancel within the 14-day period and the cover has not started, we will refund the premium paid in full. If the cover has started, you will have to pay for the cover you have received. No money can be refunded if you have made a claim, or if there has been an incident likely to result in a claim before the date you request cancellation.

For European Breakdown cover, if you cancel within the 14-day period, you will receive a full refund of any premiums paid, provided you have not made any claims and have not travelled. If you cancel after the 14-day period, there will be no refund of premiums.

For Independent Living, Basic Protect, Care Protect, Healthcare and Employee Protect and Carer & Personal Assistant cover, if you cancel within the 14-day period, you will receive a full refund of any premiums you have paid, unless you have made a claim or there has been an incident likely to result in a claim before the date you request cancellation. If you wish to cancel after the 14-day period, you will pay for the cover you have received. No money can be refunded if you have made a claim, or if there has been an incident likely to result in a claim before the date you request cancellation.

For warranty cover, if you cancel within the 14-day period, you will receive a full refund of any premiums you have paid, unless you have made a claim or there has been an incident likely to result in a claim before the date you request cancellation. If you wish to cancel after the 14-day period, you will pay for the cover you have received. No money can be refunded if you have made a claim, or if there has been an incident likely to result in a claim before the date you request cancellation.

For puncture care, excess protection, manual wheelchairs, and walking aids covers, if you cancel within the 14-day period, you will receive a full refund of any premiums you have paid, unless you have made a claim or there has been an incident likely to result in a claim before the date you request cancellation. If you wish to cancel after the 14-day period, there will be no refund.

For all other covers, if you cancel within the 14-day period, you will receive a full refund of any premiums you have paid, unless you have made a claim or there has been an incident likely to result in a claim before the date you request cancellation. If you wish to cancel after the 14-day period, you will pay for the cover you have received.,

7. Our Earnings

We receive remuneration in connection with your policy(ies) which will include a commission payment from your Insurer/Product or Service Provider and is calculated as a percentage of the total annual premium (excluding Insurance Premium Tax). The remuneration received will also include, but is not limited to, remuneration from the Insurer/Product or Service Provider based on our overall account with that firm meeting certain criteria at either a Group or individual business level.

We will charge fees on the following basis dependent upon the total overall premium level due to ourselves. Fees charged are non-refundable.

We will apply the following fees for arranging and administering your insurance product. These fees are non-refundable.

- New business and Renewal (Motor) - £75.00

Our Terms of Business - Important Customer Information

- New business and Renewal (Employee Protect) - £5.00
- New business and Renewal (Disability Equipment Warranty, Scooter Warranty and Disability Equipment inclusive of Prosthetics Insurance) £3.50
- Mid-term changes (motor) - £35.00
- Mid-term changes (all other insurance products) - £20.00
- Payment defaults (all insurance products) - £27.50
- Cancellation fees:
 - Motor - £50.00
 - Home - £25.00
 - Independent Living, Care Protect, Healthcare Protect and Carer & Personal Assistant Policy - £20.00
 - Mobility Scooter & Powered Wheelchair Insurance, Disability Equipment Insurance, Warranty and Prosthetics Insurance - £20.00

We do not charge on policies that in our sole opinion are ancillary to the main policies arranged by us. Our fees are non-refundable if you cancel your policy.

Any fee charged will not cover any work we do in relation to insurance policies which have not yet incepted or which we are not yet responsible for administering. Other companies may be involved in placing your policy(ies). If they charge a fee for those services, we will tell you what those fees are, and they will be included in the price we charge you.

We are entitled to keep all our earnings (i.e. commission and fees) for the full policy period. This will apply even if:

- the contract is terminated for any reason; or
- you choose to appoint another intermediary in our place.

You can ask us at any time for information about our earnings.

8. Client money (general)

When handling client money, we adhere to the rules set out by the FCA. These protect you:

- in the unlikely event we are unable to discharge our responsibilities
- if we fail to pass your premium onto the insurer, or
- if we fail to pass return premiums or claim payments back to you.

We will retain any interest earned on money held in our client money bank accounts.

9. Risk transfer account

We act as agent of the insurer for the collection and refunds of premiums. Depending upon the terms of business with the insurer, this may also include the payment of claims to you. You will be protected to the extent that premiums we receive from you are treated as having been received by the insurer. It also means that any claims money or premium refunds from insurers are only considered to have been received by you when actually paid over to you. Funds held in this manner are held under 'risk transfer', and we keep these premiums and/or payments in a separate account from our own money.

We will retain any interest earned on money held in our bank accounts.

We will not be liable to you for any loss resulting from the failure of any bank to meet its obligations as a result of insolvency or similar default. We may also hold separately permitted designated investments with a value at least equivalent to the money that would otherwise have been paid into a risk transfer account. If we do this, we will be responsible for any shortfall which is attributable to falls in the market value of a segregated investment.

Where risk transfer applies, we will take commission earned from Insurers immediately after we have received the premium from you or from a third-party finance provider on your behalf, provided this is consistent with the terms of business of the insurer to whom the premium is payable.

10. Security of insurers

We will endeavour to check the financial security of all insurers. We will do this by using industry rating agencies information, where it is available. However, we cannot guarantee the future solvency of any insurer we place business with.

11. Documentation

We will issue policy documentation to you in a timely manner and as soon as reasonably possible.

You must comply with the terms and conditions of your insurance policy. This applies especially to any terms described as 'warranties' or 'conditions precedent to liability'. If you fail to comply with all terms, it could result in your policy being cancelled or claims not being paid.

Your insurance policy may create ongoing duties for you. These are things which you must do or continue to do.

For example:

- Your policy may create a duty on you to tell us of any change in circumstance that the insurers may regard as important to the ongoing insurance arrangements. If you are unsure if something is important you should tell us.
- For commercial customers, your policy may create a duty for you to notify vehicle changes as required by the Motor Insurance Database. If you do not notify such changes, Insurers may cancel your policy or refuse to deal with any claims. Also, in respect of the Motor Insurance Database, you may be liable to prosecution for such failures.

We will send you your policy documentation, including your policy wording and certificate (if applicable) once we receive from insurers. If there is a delay, you can ask us to send you a specimen or standard policy.

We strongly advise employers to keep a complete record of their Employers' Liability insurance. This is because some diseases can appear decades after exposure to their cause. This means that former or current employees may decide to make a claim a long time after the period during which they were exposed to the cause of their illness.

When policy documents are issued to you, we strongly advise you to read them carefully. This is because the policy wording, the policy schedule and any certificate of insurance are the basis of the insurance contract you have purchased. If you are in doubt over any of the policy terms and conditions, please seek our advice promptly.

12. Terms of Payment

You must pay the amount due, in cleared funds, on or before the payment date(s) specified on our invoice(s). If you fail to make payments on time, that may lead to insurers cancelling your policy and/or not paying claims.

If you owe us any amount, we may deduct it from money which we may receive on your behalf from Insurers or other parties (including but not limited to claims monies or premium refunds).

Your premium may be reduced during the policy term – for example, following a reduction in cover or the cancellation of a policy. This may result in Insurers refunding premium, which we will handle in one of three ways:

Our Terms of Business - Important Customer Information

- a. Where the premium refunded is less than £10, we will retain that refund in full;
- b. Where the premium refunded is more than £10, we will refund you the premium, but net of any commission that the Insurer asks us to pay back to them. This is because the majority of our costs are incurred at new business or renewal; and
- c. Where you are a consumer and have exercised your 14-day cancellation right as set out in clause 6, we will pass on the entirety of any insurer refund to you. You can still cancel your insurance after the expiry of that 14-day cancellation right, but if you do, refunds will be determined in accordance with the other provisions of this clause.

This clause should be read together with Clauses, Cancellation and Our Earnings.

13. Instalments

We usually use Close Brothers Limited and Premium Credit Limited as finance providers for our customers and providing that you meet their acceptance criteria, you may choose to pay by instalments. We will tell you if we deal with other providers.

If you decide to make use of their services, then you will be forming a separate contract with them. This means you will still be required to make the agreed repayments if you decide to cancel a policy, or your insurer becomes insolvent. If you do not continue to pay your instalments your insurance may be cancelled. Your finance provider will give you a document explaining the terms of your finance agreement, and it is important you read this.

Please note instalment facilities are not available for all the cover types we arrange and/or services offered.

14. Taxation

Insurance premiums attract Insurance Premium Tax at the prevailing rate. Engineering inspections and some other services attract VAT at the prevailing rate. Some premiums/fees may not have a taxation element at all. If you are VAT registered, then the VAT element may be recoverable by you. Insurance Premium Tax is not recoverable.

15. Your instructions

We will use reasonable efforts to act in accordance with your reasonable instructions. If we are not able, or if it is not possible to achieve what you want, then we will tell you.

You may instruct us e-mail, by telephone or during face-to-face meetings. However, you can only rely on us having received your instructions if we have confirmed them in writing. We reserve the right to refuse your instructions but will tell you if this is the case. We use email for most of our written communications. Such communications are not completely secure and may spread harmful viruses. Please tell us if you would prefer us not to use e-mails, and we will use another means of communication with you.

Our office hours are Monday to Friday, 9.00am to 5.30pm. The office is not open for business on statutory ('Bank') holidays. There may be a delay in responding to instructions if they are received outside of office hours.

We do not issue receipts or acknowledgements unless specifically requested by you in writing.

16. Claims

In the event of an incident which could give rise to a claim you must tell your Insurer as soon as possible. If you do not, the insurer may refuse to deal with your claim or reduce the amount that you receive from them. You must notify insurers of all incidents even if you think you are not liable or at fault.

Your policy(ies) may also be subject to claims notification conditions and/or warranties. If you fail to comply with these, it may mean a claim will not be paid. Therefore, in the event of an accident that may give rise to a claim please also refer to your policy wording to check for such conditions or warranties.

Unless we agree otherwise, we will help you submit your claim to the Insurer and obtained settlement from insurers. We do not accept liability for any unpaid claims amounts if an insurer becomes insolvent or delays making settlement.

We may charge you a fee for our claims service when we act as your agent, if we intend to do this, we will discuss this with you before you incur any liability to pay us. In some claim situations, we may be acting as agent of the insurer, and we will tell you if this is the case.

17. Renewal of your policy

We aim, in a reasonable time before renewal, to provide you with renewal terms, or tell you that renewal is not being invited. We will also include with your renewal terms:

- any statement of any changes to the terms of the policy
- a statement of any changes to any information required under relevant law
- a statement of price
- information about cancellation.

If before the renewal date, we do not receive your instructions to renew prior to the renewal date, or you do not notify us that you do not wish to renew your policy(ies), we reserve the right to:

- renew your policy on your behalf (we are not obligated to do so, but if we do, you may be liable to make payment to us or to insurers)
- continue to accept payment, if you pay by instalments.

18. Complaints

We take all complaints seriously. If you are not satisfied with the service you have received from your insurer please follow the complaints procedure set out in your policy documents. If your complaint is about our service, please contact us in any of the following ways:

- In person
- Telephone: 0333 331 3900
- In writing: Southgate House, Southgate Street, Gloucester, GL1 1UB.
- by email to: complaints@fishinsurance.co.uk

We will acknowledge your complaint promptly in writing and we aim to investigate your complaint and respond to you within 8 weeks. If we take longer than 8 weeks, or you are not satisfied with the outcome, you may be eligible to contact the Financial Ombudsman Services (FOS). We will give you details in our response of how you can ask FOS to review your complaint.

Please ask us if you would like a copy of our complaint procedures.

19. The Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS)

We are covered by the FSCS. You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme if we cannot meet our obligations to you. Generally, insurance advising and arranging is covered for 90% of the claim amount with no upper limit. For compulsory classes of insurance, insurance advising and arranging is covered for 100% of the claim without any upper limit. You can obtain more information about compensation scheme arrangements from the FSCS, whose website is at www.fscs.org.uk. The FSCS does not apply to the following types of insurance: aircraft, ships, goods in transit, aircraft liability, liability of ships and credit.

Our Terms of Business - Important Customer Information

20. Limitation and/or exclusion of our Liability to you

If you are categorised by the FCA as a 'consumer' (broadly an individual acting for purposes outside your trade, business or profession) our liability for losses suffered by you as a direct consequence of any negligent performance of our services shall be limited in all circumstances to £20,000,000 per event. If you are not categorised as a 'consumer' our* total liability shall be limited to £5,000,000.

In respect of any other claim arising out of our performance or non-performance of our services our liability shall be limited to the amount of commission and fees which we have received for arranging your insurance during the 12 months prior to such claim arising.

If you feel that the above limits are not sufficient for you or your business we will be happy to discuss a higher limit of liability. If agreed, this will be set down in writing and form part of these Terms of Business. There may be an additional charge or other terms if we agree to amend this clause, which will be discussed with you prior to any amendment taking place.

21. Data Protection

We are registered with The Information Commissioner's Office in the UK and undertake to comply with the Data Protection Act and regulations in all our dealings with your personal data. Your personal information will be kept secure.

Our latest privacy policy is always available on our website at <https://www.fishinsurance.co.uk/privacy>.

It explains how we use and look after your personal data, who we share it with, and what data protection rights you have. We can post you a copy of our privacy notice if required.

If you are a Care Protect, Healthcare Protect or Employee Protect policyholder, we may process your data within xCenta, which is a trading division of PIB Risk Management Limited, in order for you to access Aquarium, our online training and risk management portal.

22. Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms of Business shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law and are subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

23. Third Party Rights

These Terms of Business are intended to confer rights only on you and us. The provisions of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 are excluded.

24. Money Laundering/Proceeds of Crime

If we suspect criminal offences such as money laundering or terrorist financing, we must report this to the National Crime Agency. These reports are confidential, and we will not tell you if they have been made.

Claims payments will only be made to you, the insured parties, or those entitled to receive them.

25. Criminal Finances Act 2017

We do not tolerate tax evasion, bribery, fraud, corruption, money laundering, terrorist financing or any other financial crimes. If a company fails to prevent facilitation of tax evasion, this is an offence under the Criminal Finances Act 2017 (CFA).

Our processes include reasonable procedures to prevent the facilitation of tax evasion as well as other financial crimes. The CFA puts responsibility on all companies to comply with this legislation, and we expect all commercial customers to comply with the requirements of the CFA.

26. Sanctions and/or Embargoes

If sanctions and/or embargoes are imposed by Governments, and/or banks chose not to handle payments in respect of various countries or persons this may restrict the provision of insurance cover, the services that can be provided or payments under such cover.

It is everyone's responsibility to comply with sanctions legislation, and we expect you to comply with the requirements of any sanctions legislation that may apply to you.

We expect you to fully disclose any exposure that you are aware of, or become aware of relating to either sanctioned persons, locations or goods where it may have an impact on our business.

In performing our duties, we may have to:

- i. advise you that our bank(s) have chosen not to handle payments relating to your transaction which will prevent the provision of cover and related services;
- ii. suspend any payments until a relevant governmental body confirms that no sanctions/embargoes have been breached and/or a licence can be issued by the relevant authority; and
- iii. advise you that some insurers may seek to cancel cover if they believe there has been a sanctions/embargo breach.

We will make reasonable efforts to warn you should we become aware that an issue may impact upon the insurance we place on your behalf or restrict the payment of any premiums or claims.

27. Liability for Directors, Officers, or Employees

You agree not to make any claim personally against any employee, director or officer arising out of the work and services provided under these Terms of Business. This clause does not in any way limit or affect our liability to you as set out above.

28. Setting sums insured, policy estimates and indemnity values

It is always your responsibility to tell us (or your insurer) the sums insured and/or indemnity values and/or policy estimates you want to have for your policy(ies). This is because insurers will rely on this information when deciding on the policy terms and premiums to apply to your policy. If you are underinsured, or have mis-stated policy estimates, insurers may not pay a claim in full or in part.

29. Other Services

We provide you with insurance information in a professional manner. However, our advice and Our service to you under these Terms of Business do not take into account Health and Safety Consultancy, or employment law considerations.

At your request, we can put you in touch with PIB Group colleagues with specialist staff in Health and Safety Consultancy, or employment law advice. If you decide to engage with them, that work will be covered by a separate and more specific Terms of Business Agreement.

Insurance Broking staff can take instructions from you on Insurance Broking Services only. You must instruct Health and Safety Consultancy or employment law specialists directly. Insurance advice may differ from or conflict with other advice which you may receive. If such a conflict or difference arises, you must tell us so we can help you deal with any such conflict or difference.

30. Committal to terms

This agreement shall become effective between both parties when cover is taken out and supersedes all previous agreements whether oral or written.

31. Termination of this agreement

You may cancel these Terms of Business with us at any time. If you do so, we will continue to be entitled to receive any fees or commissions payable. We reserve the right to resign as your broker. If policies are to be cancelled, you will be given notice in accordance with the terms of the insurance policy(ies). We will continue to fulfil any outstanding regulatory responsibilities to you following termination of these Terms of Business.

32. General

Each of our rights or remedies is without prejudice to any other right or remedy we may have whether under a contract or not.

You are responsible for your compliance with applicable laws. If we suffer financial loss because of your failure to adhere to applicable laws we may pursue damages to the extent of the loss.

Our failure or delay in enforcing (in full or part) any provision of this contract will not be construed as a waiver of any of our rights under this contract.

33. Confidentiality

We agree to keep all information provided by you to us confidential, save that you authorise us to:

- a) disclose such information to insurers and their agents for the purposes of obtaining insurance quotations for you, placing insurance on your behalf and all other matters relating to your insurances, including the making of claims;
- b) share such information with our own insurers and professional advisors on terms that preserve confidentiality or where we are required by law or by order of the court to disclose such confidential information.

However, we will not be bound to keep any information confidential where it is or becomes in the public domain, it was already known to us or becomes known to us independently of you, or if you authorise us to disclose such information.

34. Severability

If any part of these Terms of Business is or becomes illegal, invalid, or unenforceable then that part shall be deemed to be removed from these Terms of Business and shall not in any way affect the legality, validity, or enforceability of the remaining Terms of Business.

35. Waiver

Your rights and our rights under these Terms of Business may be waived if specifically agreed in writing by you and us but not otherwise.

36. Conflicts of Interest

Occasions can arise where we, or one of our associated companies, clients, or product providers, may have a potential conflict of interest with business being transacted for you. If this happens, and we become aware that a potential conflict exists, we will write to you and obtain your consent before we carry out your instructions and we will detail the steps we will take to ensure fair treatment.

Once cover has been arranged, you must immediately notify us of any changes to the information that has been provided to your insurers.

37. Continuous Payment Agreement

Continuous Payment Authority is a recurring payment process where you authorise us to take money from your bank account or debit or credit card at the renewal of your policy. In authorising Continuous Payment Authority, which you will do by accepting these terms and conditions, you permit us to charge any sums due to your card in order to renew your policy and provide continuous cover. Full details of the amount due will be held within your renewal invitation. You may cancel the Continuous Payment Authority at any time by contacting us
